NOTICE - Guidelines for Pet Owners

In accordance with the MCD guidelines:

https://mcdonline.nic.in/portal/downloadFile/policy_and_the_guidelines_for_pet_dog_registration_2310301159271027.pdf

All pet owners are requested to observe the following:

- 1. Register your pet dog with the MCD and keep vaccinations up to date. Under the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) policy, registration of pet dogs is mandatory under Section 399 of the Delhi Municipal Corporation Act. Key requirements include mandatory anti-rabies vaccination, annual online registration via the MCD Pet Dog Portal, and a uniform processing fee of ₹500.
- 2. Keep your dog on a leash in all common areas and under the control of a responsible person.
- 3. Pets are not allowed to poop in society premises. Owners are requested to take pets outside the society for this purpose.
- 4. Clean up pet waste immediately and dispose of it hygienically.
- 5. Ensure your pet doesn't bark excessively or act aggressively. When using the lift, hold the dog's chain and muzzle its face.
- 6. If multiple dogs are in the common area, owners must hold the leash tightly to prevent any quarrels.
- 7. Do not permit pets to damage society property, gardens, or common facilities.
- 8. Respect the rights, safety, and convenience of all residents while exercising your pet.
- 9. Please submit a copy of the Registration Certificate of the Pet in the Society office.
- 10. If a dog attacks any person, the entire cost of treatment will be covered by the dog owner.

The Society supports responsible pet ownership while ensuring the comfort and safety of all residents. Non-compliance may be reported to the Managing Committee for appropriate action in accordance with applicable laws.
